[] attended the first course at Wang school for two days. Otherwise she has been kept busy with documents selected by State Department historians at the Kennedy Library. Four batches have arrived so far; one set has already been distributed to the originating offices and the others are being processed here. State's request for access to CIA documents at the National Archives has been authorized.

STAT

John Warner, former CIA General Counsel, was interviewed twice by Ken and [] also returned to Dave Phillips the transcript of his earlier interview.

STAT

Ken met with [] of IMS concerning Mr. Casey's query about the status of the issue of public access to OSS documents and he is continuing to pursue this question. Ken also received a call from a Col. Kiley at the National Defense University regarding possible use of CIA materials relating to the US-Chinese Warsaw talks.

[] put together a listing of all the DDAs in response to a request from OGC.
